Greetings,

WOOLWORTHS EARN & LEARN PROGRAM

We are very thankful to Woolworths for the sensational support they give us each week with our ‘Crunch & Sip’ Program through their very generous supply of fresh fruit that they donate to us each week. This is truly appreciated. Now, Woolworths are offering our school even more support through the Earn & Learn Program. When shopping at Woolworths, ask for your Woolworths Earn & Learn Stickers from the checkout operator. Simply place them on a Woolworths Earn & Learn Sticker Sheet and drop them into the Tyalla collection box at Woolworths. You get one Earn & Learn Sticker for every $10 spent (excluding liquor, tobacco and gift cards). Sticker sheets are available from the school office or by downloading at woolworths.com.au/earnandlearn. The rewards we earn from these allow us to purchase equipment for our classrooms each year.

PARENTING IS EASY (or is it?)

As parents we love our children unconditionally. We laugh with them, play with them, guide them and above all, keep them safe from harm. But there is a point where we need to let our children experience the world and to know what may happen if things do not go their way at various stages in their lives. We learn by our mistakes and if children are not given the opportunity to explore their world we are denying them valuable experiences that they can build upon. The article below sums this up well.

‘The Effects of Overparenting on Young Adult Children’

Source: The Association Between Over-Parenting, Parent-Child Communication, Segrin, et al., Family Relations; Apr 2012; 61, 2; ProQuest, p237.

Most of us have heard the term ‘helicopter parenting’. It’s a term used to describe overly involved parents who hover over their kids, ready to swoop down and resolve any problems their child may encounter. The term is most often used in reference to parents of late adolescent or young adult children. It’s a version of over-parenting in which parents demonstrate excessive involvement in their children’s lives and apply developmentally inappropriate parenting tactics by failing to allow for levels of autonomy and independence suited to their child’s age.

The findings showed that this undoubtedly well-intentioned parenting practice is associated with otherwise flawed family processes, it does not contribute to flexible traits in young adult children, and appears to cultivate a sense of entitlement in young adult children.

Key messages:

- When children are over-parented they come to expect that problems will be solved for them and that they should not have to tolerate going without what they want. In very young children, over-parenting has been linked to anxious, withdrawn, depressive and insecure tendencies.

Things you can do:

- Keep a check on how much parental time and effort is being put into keeping your child constantly happy.
- Try not to be at the beck and call of your child or feel they must be constantly entertained.
- Allow them to try, have a go, make an attempt, experience mistakes.
- Encourage resilience and resist the urge to rescue.
- Don’t protect them from natural consequences, but rather allow them to learn from these.
- Instigate age-appropriate responsibilities that don’t require a high level of parental support or monitoring.

STAGE 3 EXCURSION

I would like to offer up a very special thank you to our staff members (Mr G, Mrs Rayner and Ms Soderlund) who took the Stage 3 children away on camp last week. From all reports I am hearing, it was a great camp and the student behaviour was excellent. Well done Tyalla.

Have a great week.

P&C NEWS
Dear Parents & Carers,
We are having our next P&C Meeting on Monday, 24th August at 7.00pm in the staffroom for anyone who would like to join us.

We are looking for someone to take over the P&C/Canteen Treasurer’s position as Tiffiny Mahar has been kind enough to keep the role even though her children are now at high school. We have worked hard this year to simplify the way the books and banking are done, so it will be an easy handover to our next Treasurer. Most of this role can be done in your own time as the banking is now online. Tiffany will be happy to offer ongoing support and training. If you would like more information please come along to the meeting or leave your details at the office and Tiffiny or I will be in touch.

As with all volunteer roles, there are great rewards. I hope that if you feel that this role may be for you, you will be in touch.

In Kindness
Tina Di Sisto (P&C President)

Healthy Stage 2 Lunchbox

Congratulations to Brooke Potter and Lani Chrisopoulos - Stage 2 Healthy Lunchbox Winners!

A name is drawn randomly each week and to qualify students must have a bottle of water and a healthy lunch and recess. They then get to pick from the box which contains some great prizes from Amart Sports. Good luck and well done to Brooke and Lani.

BOOKWEEK - 2015

Next week is Book Week! To celebrate, children are encouraged to wear their pyjamas to school on their library day and bring a torch as well as we will be reading by torchlight!
